Dear Rosemary,

Thank you for your prompt reply to my letter. I guess my German background on my father's side of the family has tended to make me somewhat stubborn in my approach to the family research I have attempted to do.

About five years ago I received a book compiled by my fourth cousins Jimmy and Raymond Neher, published Toby Brown, Direct Mail Printing Company, Wichita, KS. They had worked on this book for about eight years and had received family information and pictures from most of the known descendants of John Neher 1771-1837. It is Vol. 1. of a planed three volumes.

This book hooked me on family research. I thought if they could do it I could also do the same for my mother's side of the family and now, five years later, my computer contains about 17,000 connected family members. I had at first avoided entering the material from the Neher book and concentrated on my mother's lines. One of these was the George Bowman-Mary Hite family and as my information increased I ran into confusion about the Bowman family in the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia. Learning of course that there were several different families. My Neher book does not give a lot of historical data during the period they were in Virginia, having migrated from Lancaster county, PA to Virginia and then to Ohio, Missouri and then via North Dakota to the Wenatchee Valley of Washington in 1903.

My father's mother Martha Jane Hollar's line also follows the same migration trail and the Hollar/Haller family intermarried with a Bowman family in Virginia. Your information about John Bowman and Elizabeth Eikenberry fits in and also the Miller family is most likely the same as the Ludwig shown on my pedigree charts.

I am unaware of your direct line to the Michael Frantz family but because of the great amount of intermarriage of the Neher and Frantz ancestors in my chart, I am most interested. I also have in my father's line The immigrant Baer family, so the ship passenger lists you sent are most interesting.

Enclosed you will find the following printouts from my computer and some of the material from the Neher book:

My Pedigree Chart - showing Hollar, Brower, Miller, Baer, Garber and Frantz.
Pedigree - Leah Hollar who married John Bowman (I have no other information this John).
Pedigree - Martha Jane Hollar (shows Brower line and Faronica Eikenberry and Hannah Miller)
Family Group Sheet - Peter Holler and Katherine (shows marriage Anna to Jacob Bowman 3 Dec 1808)
Family Group Sheet - Jacob Bowman (from your material via Jobes)
Family Group Sheet - John Bowman and Elizabeth Eikenberry (Your material)
Neher-Frantz Inter marriages - Neher book p. 349-350-351-352.
Index Neher Book - Showing Wine connection.
Photos from Neher book - David Frantz and others.

I have failed to say that most of the Hollar family information was from, the book David Hollar, by Millard Bowman, a descendant. And much of the genealogy of the Samuel Miller Neher-Martha Hollar family was previously done by my first cousin, two generations removed, Beverly Cayford Berry.

Again, Thank you for your help and I would be very grateful if you would let me have your pedigree chart to show your Frantz connections.

Sincerely,

Frank Neher

PS. I also have info on Barnhart/Bowman
Descendant AND also Jacob Peters.

Dear Rosemary,

Yesterday I was able to make a few copies from the Barnhart book I mentioned earlier. These show part of the family of Daniel Barnhart whose children Daniel and John married daughters of John and Elizabeth Eikenberry Bowman.

If these are of interest to you and you would like additional copies please let me know.

The descendant, Ed Barnhart, of Wenatchee, has compiled another book on later descendants of this family and it is of note that he has the misconception that John Bowman is a descendant of George and Mary Hite Bowman. I will pass along a correction to him which I am sure he would appreciate.

Sincerely,

Frank Neher

daughters.

* The German Baptist Brethren Church, widely known as the "Dunkard changed the name from German Baptist Brethren Church to Church of the Brethren.

Source: Ima Jean Baker Young, 6921 West Arrowhead, Moses Lake, WA (Address no longer current per FDN 2/1995) Also letter from Roque Jobes, May 1995. His source Rosemary Frantz, 217 Farington Court, #17, Lafayette, IN 47905, May 1995. Jacob Bowman may have been descended from Daniel or Jacob who arrived in Philadelphia Oct 2, 1729 on the ship "Adventurer". He was probable born in Lancaster Co., PA and with his brothers John, Peter, Benjamin and perhaps Joseph settled in the Shenandoah Valley, now Rockingham County, about 1785, or earlier. His son Jacob (2) married Susannah Milhouse.
