David Traxler left Defiance, Ohio in a covered wagon with his family. He was headed for Kansas with friends, however when they reached Piatt County, Illinois they had to stop as one of the children was very ill. The rest of the folks went on and while they were waiting for the baby to recover they received a letter saying things were bad in Kansas and if they could make a living it would be better if they stayed where they were.

Anna Aldorfer's father was a minister in the Memninite Church. When it disbanded he became one in the Church of the Brethren.

(Bloom Township, Seneca County, Ohio)

When he left Great Lakes he went to San Diego, California and joined the crew of the USS Kearsarge (CVA 33). His first foreign cruise was to the South Pacific. He visited Guam, Hawaii, Japan, the Philippines and other places. After returning to the United States he transferred to the USS Oriskany (CVA 34) and made his second trip to the South Pacific. August 12, 1960 he was flown back to the States and received his discharge. After staying in Rockford for a while he re-enlisted in October 1960. At that time he was sent to Norfolk, Virginia to Compressed Gas School. Then back to the west coast and aboard the USS Lenewee (APA 195). In 1962 he met Barbara who was working part time at Newberry's while she went to Mount Saint Mary's College, and in January of 1963 they were married. Since then he made several trips to the South Pacific and the War Zone aboard the USS Hornet (CVA 12). Between trips in 1966 he was assigned to a school in San Diego. In June of 1968 he was transferred to Norfolk, Virginia where he will be an instructor in a Naval School. He and Barbara and Children, Kathleen and Ricky drove across the country stopping and visiting her grand-parents on the way. They bought a mobile home and are residing in Chesapeake, Virginia at the present.
