MARTIN WINGER FAMILY RECORD 1791-1970

HANS WENGER, Immigrant, Oct. 8, 1737
 MARTIN WENGER, 1749-1815 GINGRUCH
 JOSEPH WENGER, 1767- HOOVER
MARTIN WINGER, 1791-1864

Ch. Joseph, Mariah, Mary,
 Eliza, Michael, Daniel,
 Anna and Katie

ELIZABETH FRANTZ, 1791-1864
 MICHAEL FRANTZ III, GARST
 MICHAEL FRANTZ II, MAGDALENA ZUG
 MICHAEL FRANTZ I, Immigrant 1727

Most of this record consists of the names of the descendants of four of the children of Martin and Elizabeth Frantz Winger:

I Joseph, II Mariah, IV Eliza, V Michael.

The First Generation are numbered with Roman numerals I-VIII.

The Second Generation are numbered 1-I to 23-V.

The Third Generation are numbered 24-1-I to 23-V.

The Fourth Generation are numbered 97-24-1-I to 219-89-23-V.

The Fifth Generation are numbered 230-97-24-1-I to 414-204-77-12-II.

The Sixth Generation are numbered 463-232-99-27-1-I.

Each descendant has a number indented four spaces from the edge of the page.

When married the name with number is at the edge of the page.

In-laws have the same number as their spouses. The Index is by number.

Nos. 606, 615, 617, 623, and 624 were born in 1970. Latest wedding June 6, 1970.

The 1964 Winger Reunion appointed a committee of seven to make this record.

Anna Winger, Liberty Mills, Indiana

Leona Leckrone, R. R. 4, North Manchester, Indiana

Agnes Kessler, R. R. 1, LaFontaine, Indiana

Wilford E. Rife, R. R. 1, Denver, Indiana

J. Ralph Winger, 224 No. E. St., Marion, Indiana

Cora Winger Shultz, 603 College Ave, North Manchester, Indiana

Lawrence W. Shultz, 603 College Ave, North Manchester, Indiana

If all names had been reported and recorded from the eight children above, the number would likely be doubled. No doubt there are errors in spelling and dates. It is difficult to secure accuracy always.

The committee submits this report of this family record as of June 1970 to the 1970 Winger Family Reunion at Timbercrest Home, North Manchester, Indiana with the hope that it will have a favorable reception and prove a valuable volume for reference by future generations.

Lawrence W. Shultz was given the task of collecting, organizing, and publishing this record. Excellent help was received from many - especially Anna Ulrey, Wilford Rife for the Whiteneck line, Agnes Kessler for the Stambaugh line, Ruby Tinkle for the Michael Winger line, Everett Baker for the Mary Moss Baker families, Dessie Sanders for the Anna Moss Mathias families and Edith Urschel for the Elizabeth Moss Brooks families.

Mrs. Cora Shultz helped with data, telephoning and proof-reading.

150 copies have been made and to cover cost a price of $2 is set. Time, travel, telephone and postage will never be repaid as was expected.

 ELIAS MILLER, Ten children
 Mary, Eliza, Sarah, Nancy, Gideon, John, Elias, Maria, Rebecca, Alice I.
- IX. MARGARET WINGER, Jan. 11, 1824-

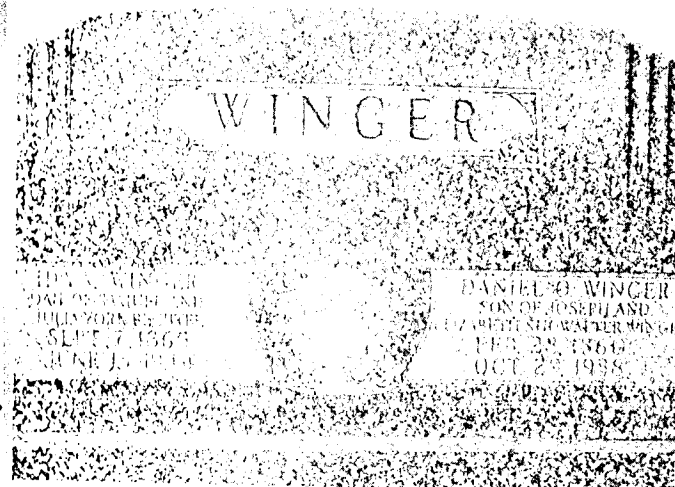

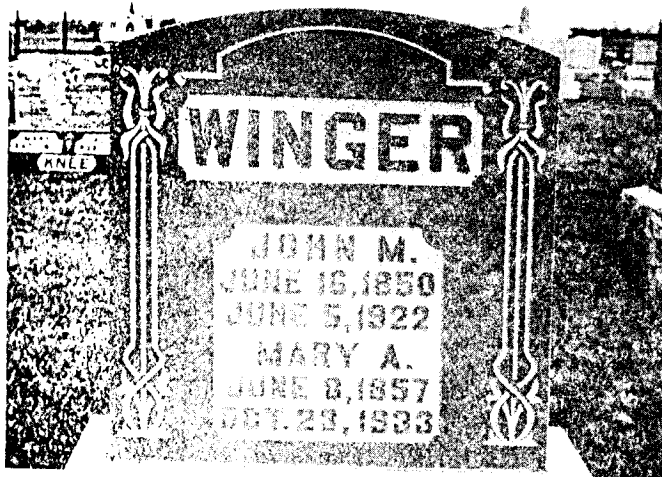

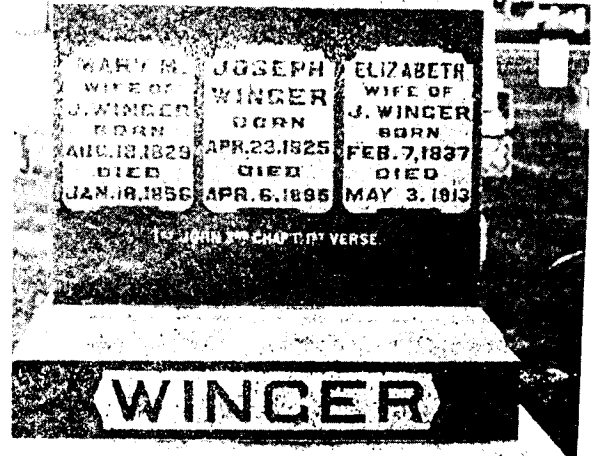

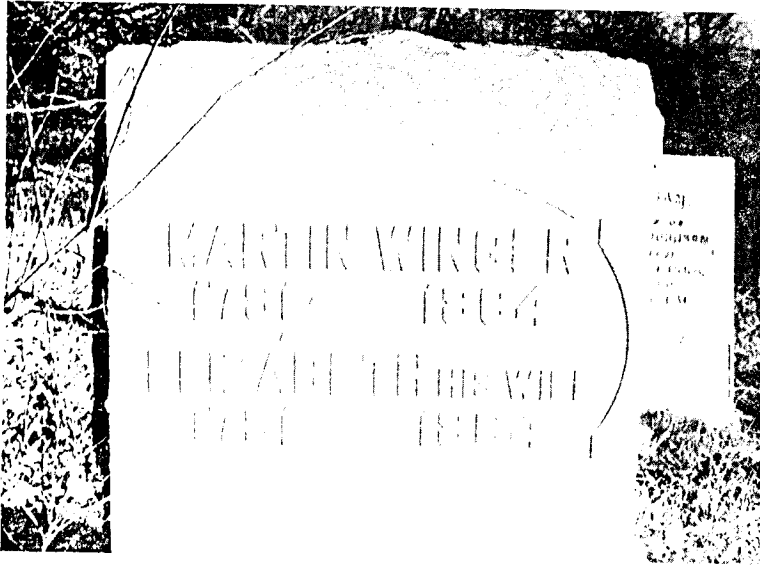

These nine children are not named in chronological order. The names: Martin, Joseph, Michael, John, and Daniel are found many times. Mary, Elizabeth, and Anna are also common names. The family names of Zug, Hoover, Gingrich, Garst, and Wenger were important names in early American pioneer life. Some were Swiss Mennonites.

Photographs of the monuments were taken in later 1969 by L. W. Shultz. These are on the next page. They represent only part of two generations after Martin and Elizabeth Frantz Winger. The Martin Winger monument is located in the Reed Cemetery 2 miles south and one-half mile west of Roann, Ind. (Some Showalters are also buried there). The other five monuments are in the new Mississinewa Memorial Cemetery about two miles north of Somerset, Ind. on Indiana State Road 13. These were moved from the old Vernon Cemetery just across the road from Somerset. This was done because of the building of The Mississinewa Dam Reservoir. 1966-1968.

Mr. L. W. Schultz
North Manchester, Indiana

Dear Mr. Schultz:

Several years ago when you visited the campus of Juniata College, you asked for the translation of the fly leaf of a Bible formerly owned by Martin Wenger. Busy schedules and a year's leave of absence have delayed this project.

Today, our German professor, Mr. George Dolnikowski, finished the translation. He has included blanks where the writing was not clear and question marks where he was not certain of the spelling or part of the date. Most of the material in parentheses is for purposes of clarification. This translation is enclosed on a separate sheet.

We hope this will be of use to you in your genealogical searchings.

Yours truly

Anna K. Winger

I

Michael Frantz came from German Switzerland in 1727

He had but one son, Michael Frantz II

Michael Frantz II married Magdalena Zug, they had eight sons;

Christian, Daniel, Michael, Peter, John, Jacob, David, Abraham.

Christian became the second elder of the Donnells Creek Church

Daniel and Christian Frantz were the only two sons who came west.

Daniel is buried in the Frantz Cemetery, about eighty rods south of the National Road, three miles west of Springfield, Ohio.

Michael Frantz II moved from Pennsylvania to Botetourt Co. Va. about 1784

Michael Frantz I was one of the greatest preachers of the Church of the Brethren

His old home was near Ephrata, Pa. where his old barn, perhaps the same frame, still stands.

Johannes Wenger (Hans) came from Germany to Lebanon County, Pa. 1748 and settled near what is now Jonestown, about twenty-five miles west of Harrisburg, Pa.

His children: John, Abraham, Christian, Henry, and daughter, Judith. Stephen John became the owner of the home farm, which has remained in the ownership of the Wenger family ever since. The present owner is Mrs. Robert Boud, Jonestown, Pa. John is the ancestor of the South Bend, Wenger, through his son Christian, and grandson, Martin. Martin, son of Hans Wenger, ancestors of the Wingers of Wabash and Grant County Wingers, etc. settled near Chambersburg, Pa. Henry Wenger settled at Erie, Pa. and later in Canada.

There are many Wengers in Canada.

Joseph Wenger, son of Martin, moved to Roanoke, Virginia. Two of his sons, Martin and Henry, married sisters, Elizabeth and Magdalena Frantz, daughters of Michael Frantz III. The Wengers were mennonites until these two Winger brothers married into the family of Michael Frantz who were Dunkers.

Samuel Wenger of Southern Ohio, was a brother of William Wenger, the father of Mrs. B. F. Studebaker.

Samuel's son, John, was the father of Prof. R. C. Wenger and Samuel Wenger, etc. Millard and Mary.

APPENDIX

At a late date in the preparation of this RECORD discovery was made of data on the Showalter families coming from the No. III family of MAGDALENA WINGER and DANIEL SHOWALTER.

Homer T. Showalter (1969 Distinguished Citizen Award Recipient of Wabash, Indiana) has been willing to contribute the following two pages of very interesting material about the Showalter lineage which he has compiled.

On page 1 of this RECORD, the name Mary, child of Martin and Elizabeth Frantz Winger, should have been Magdalena.

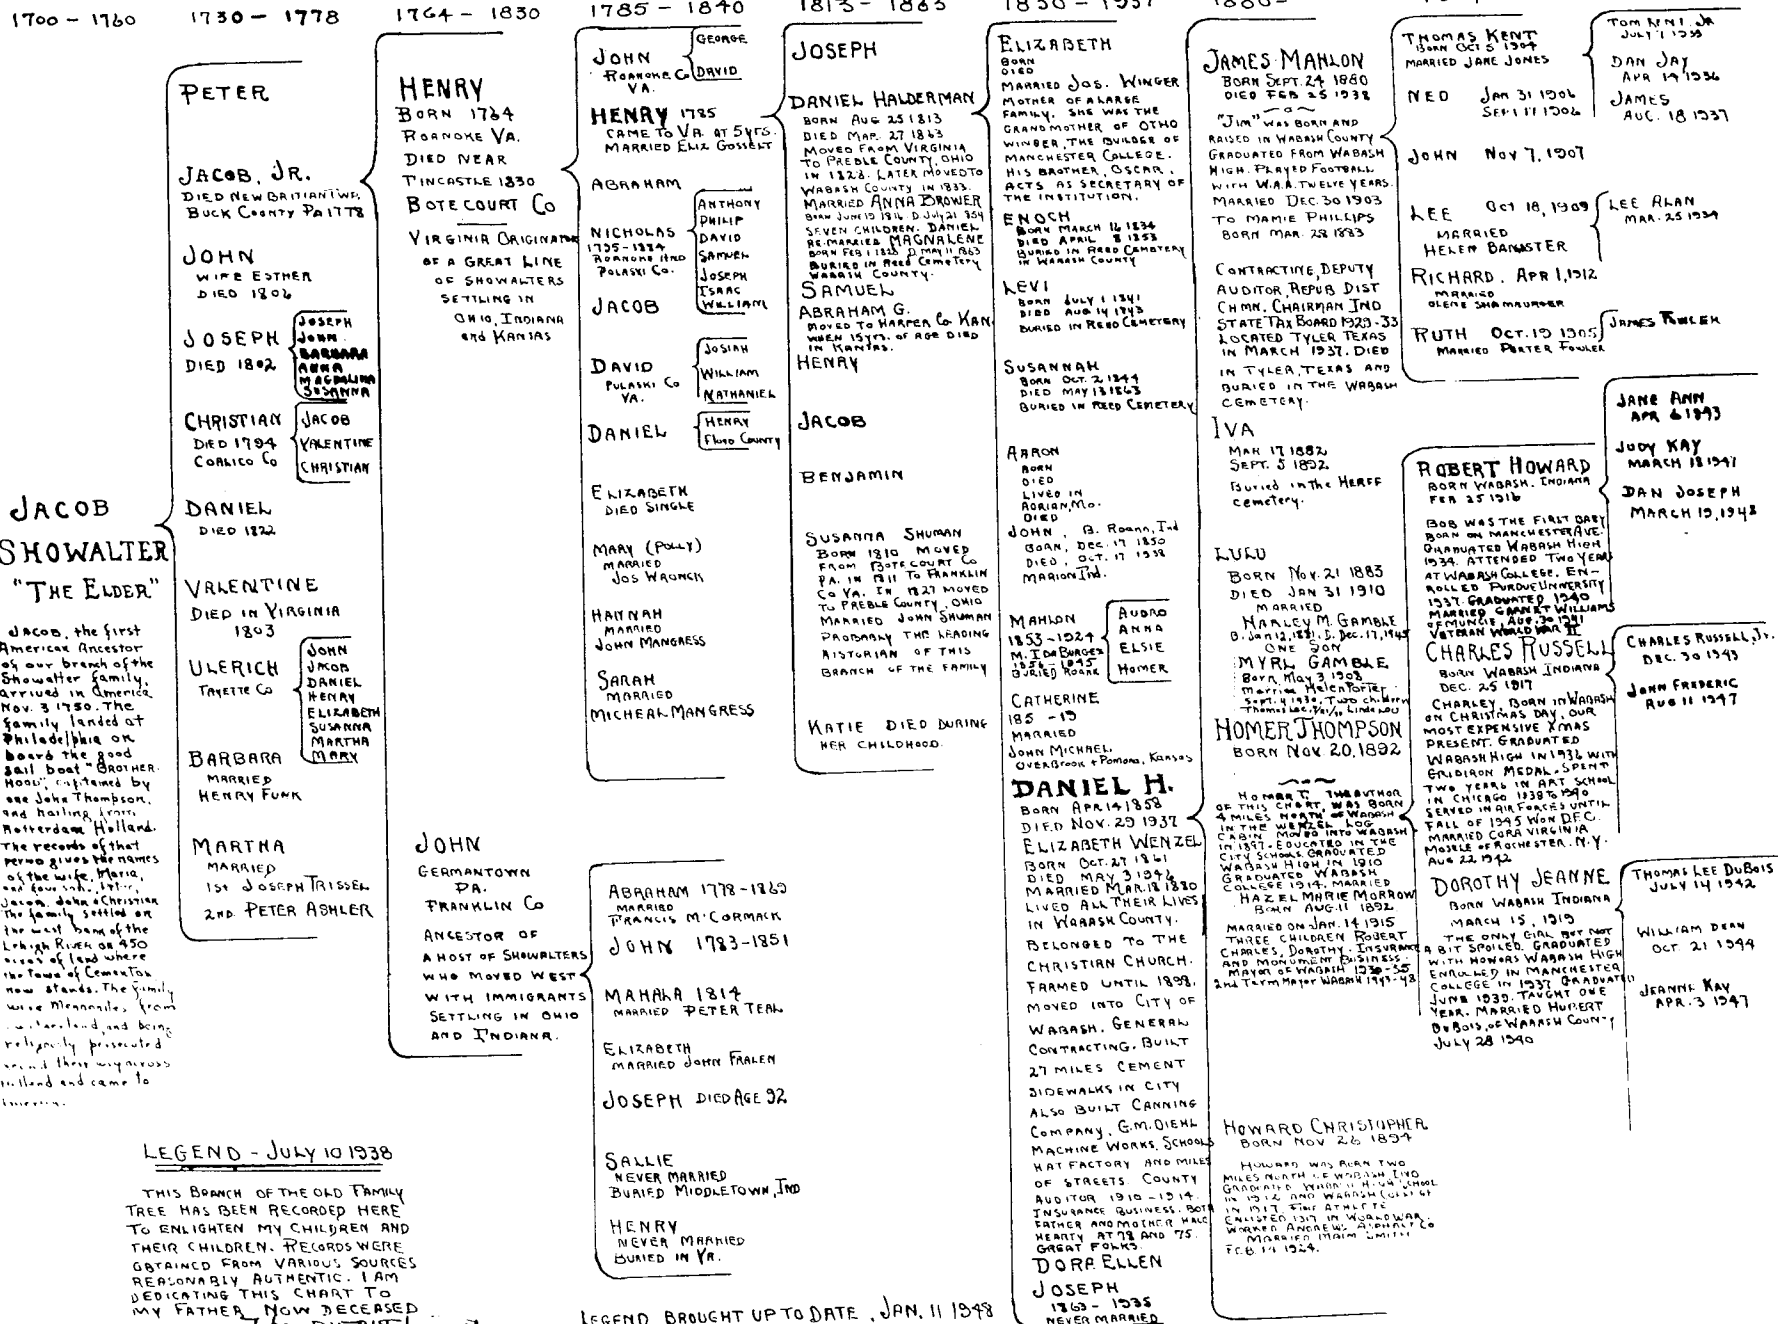

MY FATHER WAS AN ORPHAN AT FIVE YEARS OF AGE. HE KNEW THE NAMES OF HIS BROTHERS AND SISTERS BUT NONE OF THE DATES. NO RECORD OF HIS FATHERS BIRTH OR OTHER ANCESTORS. I MET GUS SHOWALTER OF INDIANAPOLIS. HE GAVE ME SOME NAMES TO WRITE. FROM WM JOSEPH SHOWALTER, EDITOR OF THE NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC, I RECEIVED A PACKAGE OF OLD LETTERS. FROM THESE LETTERS, I MADE THIS CHART. THIS WAS IN 1938. I BROGT IT DOWN TO DATE IN NOV. OF 1948 AND WILL LATER ADD THE NAMES AND DATES AS THE FAMILIES GROW.

THRU THE MANY LETTERS, I FOUND THE SHOWALTER PEOPLE TO BE RELIGIOUS, HONEST, PEACE LOVING. NOT TOO MANY SINCE 1750 HAVE ATTAINED PROMINENCE NATIONALLY, BUT HAVE ASSUMED THEIR SHARE OF LOCAL RESPONSIBILITY. GEOGRAPHICALLY, WE FIND SHOWALTERS LIVING IN PENNSYLVANIA, AND VIRGINIA, AND IN OHIO AND INDIANA. OTHERS FURTHER WEST IN MO., KANSAS, AND COLORADO.
