

Subject: fitting inDate: Tue, 10 Dec 1996 06:45:01 -0500From: "Andrew A. Rohrbach Sr." <arohrbac@erinet.com>To: ledwards@qnet.com

Hi Lorraine,

I can't remember if I ever sent anything to this address or not! I'm getting old I guess.

Anyway, my great, great ,great grandmother was Mary Ann FRANTZ, born 27 Jan. 1832 in Montgomery Co., Ohio. Her husband was Wilson RILEY, they married 14 Apr. 1855. Mary's parents were Christian FRANTZ and Barbara SHOCK.

Mary and Wilson had Walter Riley, born 31 Jul. 1855, in Warren Co., Ohio. He married Martha Elizabeth STRICKER on 12 Dec. 1888.

Martha and Walter had Clara May RILEY, born 23 Nov. 1889 in Brookville, Montgomery Co., Ohio. She married Arthur Hurbel MILLS on 23 Dec. 1907.

Clara and Arthur had Edna Irene MILLS (my maternal grandmother) she was born 20 Mar 1909. As a side note, all of my life it has been tradition to "go to grandmaw's house" every Sunday night. Grandmaw is still alive and well and we still go to her house every Sunday evening. The whole family gathers about 7 p.m. and we talk and eat ice cream. A family tradition that is still going on. Anyway, she married Lawrence Allen METZGER on 22 Sep. 1928.

Edna and Lawrence had Doris Irene Metzger (My mother) born 27 Oct. 1930, she married my father Robert Wesley ROHRBACH Sr. on 27 Aug. 1949.

Doris and Robert had ME Andrew Allen ROHRBACH, born Nov. 15, 1953. I Also have two older brothers. I married Laurie Jo Myers, and we have six children.

So that's how we fit in!!!

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year,

Andy Rohrbach
arohrbac@erinet.com